Per PERAC Memo #31/2010 - Section 25 of FY 11 State Budget provides that effective July 1, 2010, the annual rate of interest that will be paid when a member voluntarily withdraws from service and seeks a return of his or her contributions with less than 120 months (10 years) of creditable service will be 3%. A refund under these circumstances will include interest at a rate of 3% for the entire period, meaning that the interest credited for each year will be 3%.

Discussed Supplementary Regulation: Creditable Service: B#6 currently reads: "Payment of buybacks of creditable service may be made one of the following ways", will the Board vote to change this line to add a length of time to complete the buy backs? James Deery, TWN, police officer requested information on a veterans' buy back April 29, 2008 but has not yet made a payment. Will the Board vote to allow Mr. Deery to follow the new supplementary regulation stating he must complete the buy back within 5 years from the date of the first payment, instead of 5 years from the date of the application?

BOARD VOTED on a motion made by M. Fiske and seconded by C. Olsen to approve Mr. Deery to utilize the new changes made to the supplementary regulation. Motion failed by 2 to 2 vote.

Discussed contracts for school employees; cafeteria workers and paraprofessionals. When a paraprofessional is asked to substitute for a teacher, is the additional pay “regular compensation?”

BOARD VOTED on a motion made by D. Dion and seconded by M. Fiske that the “extra” pay is considered regular compensation in both situations and retirement deductions should be withheld.
